What is AICP? AICP is a statewide program for persons who are diagnosed with AIDS or are HIV positive with symptoms and who, because of their illness, are unable to maintain their private health insurance coverage. The program makes direct payments (up to $750/month) to each client's employer or insurance company for the continuation of medical, dental, mental health and optical coverage.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Receive a Notice of Eligibility for the HIV/AIDS Patient Care Programs
- Diagnosis of AIDS, or HIV positive with symptoms
- Currently covered by private health insurance

Need more information? Please contact one of the above AICP locations for more details
